SHOT A BURGLAR

Niles Jeweler Did a Good Job.

Man Was Trying to Break in His House.

Tracked by Blood for Two Blocks.

Niles, Aug. 20.—(Special to THE NEWS).—All the people of Niles are today congratulating W. G. Blish through whose well-directed efforts this morning Niles is rid forever from one of the burglars who have been terrorizing the people of this city.

This morning Mr. Blish was awakened at 2 o'clock by a noise about the house as though someone was trying to break into the house. Mr. Blish listened and creeping quietly out of bed discovered a man trying to break through the fastenings of the house. He was armed with a gun and he banged away at the burglar.

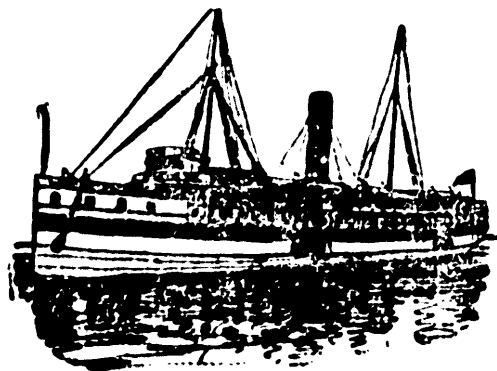

The fellow was tracked for two blocks by streams of blood. It appears that the bullet must have struck him in the side of the face, as great chunks of mangled flesh were found a short distance from the house, also a tooth.

It is thought that the burglar is a South Bend professional and that he had some pals who drove him away in a rig. The officers are searching for the outlaw. It is safe to say that this identical burglar will never visit Niles again, that is, in an official capacity.

NAVAL VICTORS WELCOMED HOME IN NEW YORK

New York, Aug. 20.—New York City put on her holiday attire today and with flags and cheers and the gathering of thousands upon thousands of citizens the North Atlantic fleet was welcomed into the waters of the Hudson river.

Admiral Sampson's victorious fleet was sighted off the Highlands at 5 o'clock this morning, and three hour later the ships were in the lower bay steaming for the naval anchorage at Tompkinsville.

The first thing that greeted the eyes of the men on the battleships was the signal waving from the giant flag staff at Sandy Hook which waved the cheering news that the fleet had swept the ocean clean of Spaniards. "Well done, boys," was the signal that floated from the smaller flag staffs.

The noise of greeting and welcome began as soon as the fleet was sighted in the upper bay. Guns boomed at intervals and the steam craft on the river all blew their whistles. Thousands of people lined the shore and party were taken to the fleet by a police boat and they steamed up along the side of the flagstaff New York. The party boarded the New York and were greeted by Admiral Sampson and his aides.

After formal welcomes had been exchanged, Mayor Van Wyck delivered an address to the commander of the fleet, who thanked him in a few words.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies the mayor and his party started ashore and soon thereafter the naval parade got under way and started for Grant's tomb, where the fleet is now anchored.

BIG MEETING.

Many Farmers Attending the Sugar Beet Meeting.

About 300 interested men, mostly farmers, are attending the sugar beet meeting which is being held in Conkey's hall this afternoon and much interest is being displayed.

President J. J. Miller of the Benton Harbor board of trade called the meeting to order and Hon. J. W. Fletcher of St. Joseph was elected chairman. After a few remarks he introduced Mr. Furman of Chicago, who is an expert in the beet sugar business, who gave facts about the factories located in Europe, Bay City, Nebraska and other places and explained to the farmers how sugar beets were raised, and the manner in which sugar was made from the beets. He said that in Nebraska farmers were afraid to raise the beets and it was necessary to go 100 miles from the factory and lease ground in order to have beets enough to keep the factory running. After the first 3 years it would have been an easy matter to have contracted with the farmers for 10,000 acres.

The meeting will also be addressed by C. M. Garrison of Bay City and local speakers and it is safe to say that many farmers will be convinced that there is more money in raising sugar beets than in raising small fruits.

What He Doted On.

"Don't you love the country when the trees begin to leave and all nature takes on the freshness and full-fed flavor of the juicy earth, Mr. Codman?" "Well, I—I—why, yes, Miss Gushly, I think so." "And all animate things come forward so full of joy and sprightly life, Mr. Codman? The frisking, skipping, bleating lamb, for instance. Don't you dote on it?" "I do, indeed, Miss Gushly. If the lamb is well done and the peas are fresh and the mint sauce about right, I know of nothing I dote on more."—Brooklyn Life

ALGER GUARD GALLERY.

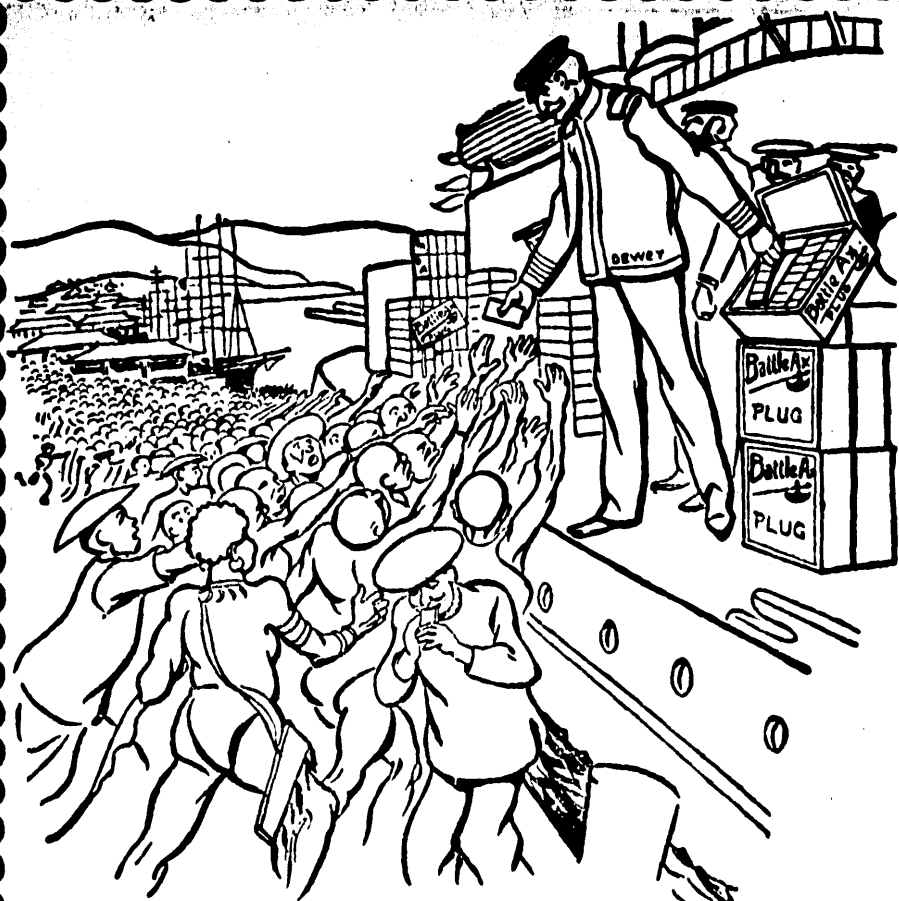

John R. Bradley, private in Company I, 33d Michigan, left a good job in the Spencer & Barnes furniture factory to fight for his country. Mr. Bradley was the only person employed in the furniture factory who left his work to become a soldier. He was a general favorite with the furniture workers and the Sunday before he left with the Alger guard the employees of the factory gave him a touching farewell reception at which Elmer Parrott, his foreman for over four years, presented him on behalf of his former associates a gold band ring on which was engraved his initials and the name and number of his company and regiment.

Private Bradley was born in Germany, February 8, 1875, and is 23 years old. He came to this country when six months old. His mother died in St. Joseph several years ago and he has a sister in St. Joseph, Mrs. James Taylor.

Mr. Bradley is a member of Ivy Leaf camp, Modern Woodmen of America, the only member of the camp who went to war, and carries a $2,000 policy. His brothers in the society are keeping up his dues and assessments and when he returns he will find that his membership has not lapsed. Upon his return his old position in the varnish room of the Spencer & Barnes factory is open to him.

OPPOSES EXPANSION.

Henry Wade Rogers Seems to Think It Bad on General Principles.

SARATOGA CONFERENCE IS "ON."

Object of the Gathering Is to Discuss the Policy of the Government with Regard to Territory Taken from Spain—Speaker Opposes the Incorporation of Any of It Into Our Body Politic—Judge Grosscup Takes a Different View.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 20.—In response to the call recently issued by the Civic Federation, of Chicago, and signed by numbers of public men in various parts of the country several hundred delegates, some of whom were appointed to represent the cities in which they live while others attend as individual and self-appointed delegates, are attending the national conference for discussing the future foreign policy of the United States. The conference was formally opened yesterday and the attendance of delegates was considerably increased by the presence of many members of the American Bar association, which concluded its annual meeting yesterday morning. President Henry Wade Rogers, of Northwestern university, of Evanston, Ill., called the gathering to order, and after reading the call addressed the conference.

Rogers sounds the keynote. Rogers, after briefly outlining the object of the gathering, said: "Thank God we are at peace once more. We have had magnificent victories, brilliantly won by men of splendid courage and remarkable skill. These devoted men have added to the honor and glory of our country. But peace brings us face to face with serious problems. We have triumphed over our enemies, as was expected. It remains to be seen whether we can triumph over ourselves. For peace has its victories as well as war. There are those who tell us that we are our own worst enemies. Von Holst, the historian, speaking not long ago in Chicago, and paraphrasing a well-known saying of the Bourbons, said: 'Of its enemies our glorious country can easily take care itself, but God deliver it from its patriots!'"

Not a Friend of Expansion. "Let us not in the flush of sudden victory hastily conclude that we have outgrown all our cherished doctrines of the past, and that we have a new mission in the world different from that which the fathers marked out for us, and with which we have heretofore been so well content. The most important question to come before this conference is that of annexation of territory. The supreme court of the United States in the days of Chief Justice Marshall forever settled the question that under the treaty-making power new territory can be acquired. On the exercise of that power we have, as the expansionists remind us, again and again added to our domain. But the anti-expansionists tell us that congress, in justifying the war before the public opinion of the world, made proclamation of high purpose that it was to be a war for humanity and that the idea of any self-aggrandizement was disclaimed."

GOES BACK TO THE DECLARATION.

And intimates That Uncle Sam Is Being Tempted to Steal.

Discussing the question of government for the conquered territory the speaker said: "But if our official declarations have been misinterpreted by the anti-expansionists, there seems to be another phase of the matter which is worthy of respectful consideration. The government of the United States is established upon the principle that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed. Congress has recognized that principle as to Cuba and declared that the people of that island 'of right ought to be free and independent.' If, as the declaration of independence asserts, all men are created equal and have certain inalienable rights, upon what theory do we concede to Cubans the right to determine what shall be their form of government while we deny the same right to the people of Porto Rico or of the Philippines?"

"We are told that we are entitled to take Porto Rico or the Philippines as an indemnity. . . . But does it accord with the principles of our political philosophy that we should deprive the people of Porto Rico or the Philippines of their inalienable rights that we may pay ourselves for helping the Cubans secure theirs? The command, 'Thou shalt not steal' was meant for nations as well as men. There seems to be a very general concurrence of opinion that the colonies are forever lost to Spanish rule. Gentlemen tell us that these colonies are incapable of governing themselves, that we cannot turn them over to any European nation, and that there is no alternative left us, but to govern them ourselves. They would therefore annex them as a matter of duty."

"If it be conceded that these people are incapable of self-government, as to which there seems to be no adequate evidence as yet, and if we grant that circumstances have made us guardians over them, may we not inquire whether there be no other way of discharging that duty than by incorporating them into our body politic through annexation? England has maintained order and good government in Egypt without British domain." . . . and that annexation was a commercial progress, and a situation, without annexing the islands, enabling us to dictate the conditions of trade in these islands.

GROSSCUP IS FOR EXPANSION.

Federal Judge Gives His Reasons for Favoring That Policy.

Carl Schurz, of New York, spoke at length, giving the views of the anti-expansionists, whose cause he advocated. He was opposed by Judge P. S. Grosscup, of Chicago, who is an earnest expansionist, and who spoke at great length. Judge Grosscup said in part: "I am among those, Mr. President, who believe that the people of the United States can, without breach of faith to the promises of our past or serious danger to the expectations of our future, hold permanently all, or a portion, of the territory that has been occupied by our troops during the progress of the war."

"Wars are the thunderstorm of civilization; they never subside without clearing the atmosphere of much of its sultriness. The one through which we are just passing seems to have enveloped the people of America in a new atmosphere. We see, more clearly than ever before, the things that in this world can be culled our own, and the things that stand apart from us, the possessions of others; ourselves, and our relations to the other nations of the world as distinct from ourselves. . . . There is moral elevation in a wide outlook. As a people, we, for the first time, look clearly over the empire of the earth."

"I favored the acquisition of Hawaii, and I favor the acquisition of the Philippines, or so much of them as may be needed, solely because in the new career of commercial activity upon which I trust we are about to enter we need, clear across the Pacific, a line of naval stations and home ports. . . . I favor the retention of the Philippines—or at least a part of them—that they may stand as a tangible continuing demonstration of the physical presence of the republic in Asiatic waters. . . . I come now to what is, in my judgment, the most interesting and important object of our future foreign policy. I refer, of course, to the immediate future of Asia. It is in that quarter that we will find a situation open to American enterprise, a commerce waiting for American venture, and eventually a people and institutions ready for a graft from the tree of Anglo-Saxon civil liberty."

"Our course seems clear. If we are in earnest in our purpose to participate in the development of the east. We need these islands as an integral part of the naval force, without the display of which we can never obtain a proper share in her commerce or protect it after it is obtained; we need them as strategic points in a naval contest with any power on the earth; we need them that we may draw physically close to that quarter of the globe in which we wish our influence to be felt, and our commerce to expand; we need them, above all other considerations, as security toward peace—that character of peace—bonds that all nations respect."

Spectator's View of the Case.

London, Aug. 20.—The Spectator in its issue this week prophesies that America will retain all the Spanish possessions she has captured, and thinks that "pressure from the Cuban loyalists will force the commission to stipulate that Cuba shall be governed by the United States for twenty years." The Spectator says: "America will find herself at the end of the year in the possession of the beginning of an over-sea tropical empire. Long may she rule it in the interests of humanity and justice. While it is so ruled Englishmen will never envy her possessions, nor their expansion into a domain as great as our own."

TWO CENTS

500 ACRES

Sodus Will Furnish That Acreage of Beets...

A rousing sugar beet factory meeting was held at Sodus last evening, addressed by C. M. Garrison of Bay City and J. J. Miller of this city. The farmers of that locality are very enthusiastic and contracts for many acres were signed last night. The farmers of Sodus will grow 500 acres of beets next year.

PARK QUESTION.

J. F. Higbee Agrees With George F. Souner's Letter.

EDITOR EVENING NEWS: In looking over your paper I saw a sensible letter from G. F. Souner in regard to the city park question, and I most heartily endorse his remarks. Every word of it is sensible and true. To confirm his statements we can see for ourselves. As the excursionists land here by rail they immediately go to the lake as many of them never saw a boat or a like before. We might cover Benton Harbor with parks and it would not hold them from the bluff of St. Joseph which affords one of the most delightful views on Lake Michigan.

Nature has provided us with one of the most delightful parks in the state of Michigan or any other state, so far as I am acquainted, and that is Eastman springs. Taking the water into consideration I would rather have it than any gold mine in Alaska, simply because it is eternal. This property has fallen into the hands of Mr. Eastman's heirs, who are making fine improvements and it is very attractive.

Suppose we were foolish enough to build a park half way on the street railway line to Eastman Springs do you think one excursionist would stop there? No, they would go where nature has provided a park with beautiful water.

In conclusion, I will simply say we have taxes enough to raise without buying something unneeded for. There is a very desirable spot at the end of Mr. Bean's railway for a city park.

Niles Wants a Street Fair.

Niles Sun: Niles may have a street fair this fall. The scheme is now in its infancy, but it may assume big proportions in a few days, providing certain concessions are secured. For a number of days several business men have been quietly at work on the project, and have talked the matter with others. About $500 is needed to assure a street fair of being a magnificent success and it is proposed to have the liquor dealers contribute $25 each, hotels and restaurant proprietors $10 to $15 each, and any number of business men have pledged themselves to give like amounts. It seems like it would be little trouble to raise $500, which would assure two days and nights of the hottest old times Niles ever saw.

Hon. Henry Chamberlain's Team.

Three Oaks Press: The Hon. Henry Chamberlain did not come much amiss of losing a fine team of horses last week Wednesday. At noon the horses were tied to the wagon and fed, and a fire that had been started in the stubble which was being plowed under on the marsh crept under them, burning both terribly—one so badly that it was thought for several days it could not live. Excepting a few scars, it is now thought the horses will come out all right. A windmill and stack of straw were also in the blaze.

PAWNEE BILL.

His Big Show Will Come a Week from Today.

Pawnee Bill's Wild West will visit Benton Harbor a week from today. The following press comments gives a good idea of what the show really is:

It is no exaggeration to say that Pawnee Bill's Historical Wild West and Grand Mexican Hippodrome, which exhibited in Buffalo yesterday, was decidedly the best performance given here for many years, without any exception. The performance was fully up to what they had promised, and gave universal satisfaction.—Buffalo, N. Y., Courier.

Pawnee Bill's Historical Wild West. This truly superior organization exhibited here Saturday last, and when we say the performances of novelty and thorough enjoyment were equal to anything of the kind ever seen here, we but voice the universal sentiment of those who attended. The proprietor, Major Gordon W. Lillie (Pawnee Bill), is a gentleman in every respect, and well worthy of the patronage of the public at large.—Baltimore, Md., Sun.

May Lillie is a good rider and justly holds the title of the champion female horseback shot of the world.—Washington Post.

RETRENCHMENT NEXT

Uncle Sam Now Busy Shutting Off the Extra War Expenditures.

REDUCTION OF FORCE AT ARSENALS

Rock Island (Ill.) Plant Likely To Be More Affected Than Any Other.

Many Contracts for War Materials Terminated Either by Their Own Terms or by Amicable Agreement with the Firms.—No Important Developments from the New "Frontier"—List of Sick Soldiers Brought Home on Hospital Ships.

Washington, Aug. 20.—There were few developments of importance in the post-war situation yesterday. The authorities are still waiting for General Merritt's report on the list of casualties and the state, war and navy departments are interested in knowing the exact terms on which Manila was surrendered—whether the city alone or all the Philippines were included. It was stated by officials that nothing additional on this point had been received up to the close of office hours yesterday. The efforts to restore the Manila cable continue, but they have not proved successful thus far. The claims made in Madrid that the protocol and not the capitulation controls the status of affairs in the Philippines will not be discussed by state department officials. The Madrid discussion is looked upon as rather academic, as it is taken for granted that claims will be made on both sides and that the Paris tribunal will be the final arbiter of the case.

Retrenchment Is Next in Order.

Retrenchment in nearly all branches of the army is following close upon the cessation of hostilities. Notably is this the case in the ordnance, quartermaster and engineer bureaus, where the need for the supplies required and the men employed for the exigencies of war no longer exists. In the ordnance bureau, the force at the various arsenals is to be reduced in all cases where this can be accomplished without detriment to the service. The Rock Island arsenal probably will be affected more than any other. There, before the war, about 240 men were employed. When the peace protocol was signed there were approximately 4,000 men engaged, and orders have been issued which will reduce this number by two-thirds.

Will Terminate Many Contracts.

Before and during the war large numbers of contracts were made with ordnance firms for supplying material. In many cases these were made conditional so that they could be terminated within a few days after the cessation of hostilities, and the department has in every case availed itself of this privilege. At the end of the civil war the government had outstanding contracts for furnishing a large number of big seacoast projectiles, but as these were regarded unnecessary when hostilities came to an end amicable arrangements were made with the companies by which their contracts were cancelled.

Transports Are Being Released.

The quartermaster's department is despatching as rapidly as possible with such of the transports that were chartered for which there is now no necessity. Considerable labor is involved in this work, as a board of survey has to be appointed to determine the various incidental questions that arise pending the return of the vessels to their owners. In the engineer's department the services of electricians, mechanics and laborers engaged in the work of harbor and river mine defense and of boatmen employed to patrol the adjacent waters to warn approaching craft of their danger also are being discharged as rapidly as is consistent with the good of the service.

GREAT FLEET TO ASSEMBLE.

Will Be About Seventy Warships at Fort Monroe in a Few Days.

Washington, Aug. 20.—One of the largest fleets of warships ever assembled in an American port will be brought together in the next few days at Fort Monroe. Already fifty-seven warships are under orders to rendezvous there, and the orders still to be issued will raise the total to the neighborhood of seventy. Naval officials say it is difficult to realize the extent of such a marine aggregation in one harbor. The orders began issuing last Monday, when five ships were ordered to Fort Monroe. On the 16th another ship was added. On the 17th eight more were sent and on the 18th seventeen ships were added. Yesterday's orders included eighteen more ships. Before the orders began issuing there were eight warships at Fort Monroe, so that the total up to yesterday is fifty-seven.

The movement of these ships northward is due to the close of hostilities, and more particularly to the desire to get the ships away from points of possible fever infection. They will now be put in thorough repair, and their crews will be gradually changed from naval militia to sailors of the regular navy. The navy department has not yet determined what ships will go to Havana, San Juan and other points of Cuba and Porto Rico. There is felt to be no hurry about this until the authority of the United States is fully established throughout the islands.

Special Train for Democrats.

The M. B. H. & C. railway will run a special train leaving Benton Harbor at 8:30 a. m. Monday, August 22, for the delegates to the democratic county convention at Berrien Springs. Fare for the round trip 50 cents.

Free Rheumatism Cure.

Trial Package Free to All--Send for It--Tell Your Suffering Friends That They Can First Test Before They Part With Their Money.

A Genuine Rheumatism Specific That Cures Rheumatism No Matter if 20 Doctors Have Tried and Failed. It is a Marvelous Remedy.

Not a great doctor; not an eminent specialist; not a patent medicine man but just a plain, every-day citizen of Milwaukee says that anyone who will send him their name and address can have absolutely free a trial package of a remedy that cured him of rheumatism and has cured hundreds of others whose years of pain and suffering, helplessness and despair had well nigh sent to an untimely grave. It is a subject of great interest. Rheumatism is a most merciless demon. It spares neither the God-fearing nor the infidel. Born of the devil it seems to tantalize men's souls to see how much they can suffer and yet breathe the air that Providence filled with life.

N. H. Spafford, of Milton, Mass., sent for a free trial of Gloria Tonic. He had suffered for many years. At times the pain would ease up a little and fill his heart with thankfulness that perhaps life would not be such a burden after all. But no sooner would he rejoice than a sudden change of the weather would strike him another heartless twinge of pain and so it went year after year. The free trial reached him during one of these periodic spells and gave him such relief that he continued the remedy and was completely cured. Mr. Smith, the discoverer of the remedy, was an invalid as a result of rheumatism, the disease affecting his foot. At times he could barely hobble about. He experimented with all sorts of drugs and by great good luck hit upon a combination that acted as a specific for the disease. At first he confined his efforts among those whom he personally knew, but in time the demand for his discovery became so great that he put the medicine up in regular form and has since sold it through the drug stores at $1.00 a box. But most people who suffer are convinced that there is no cure for rheumatism, and to offset this doubt Mr. Smith sends a trial package free that all may test it first and thus learn of its wonderful merit. Send your name and address to John A. Smith, 544 Sumnerfield Church Building, Milwaukee, Wis., and by return mail he will send prepaid a package of Gloria Tonic, a remedy that will cure any form of rheumatism, no matter how many doctors have tried and failed.

THE Kalamazoo News makes the following comparison: "Joe Leiter squandered $10,000,000 on the board of trade. The government only spent 15 times as much in thrashing Spain and taking a lot of islands."

THE Kalamazoo Telegraph editorially tells of the trials young Pullman experienced in trying to get a marriage license in New York. Will the Telegraph kindly state how many years ago it was when it became necessary to take out a license to marry in New York state?

GOVERNOR Pingree has put on his war paint and is bitterly denouncing the critics of Secretary Alger. The governor says that any state but Michigan would defend an honored son like Gen. Alger. Evidently there have been times when the governor has forgotten that Senators McMillan and Burrows are Michigan men.

A LEADING out-of-town republican yesterday informed THE EVENING NEWS that the people who were engineering the fight against the postoffice removal were very foolish as they were abusing the very officials of whom they expected favors. Benton Harbor people want no favors of any officials. All they want is a voice in their own affairs and they propose to have it. When an official does justice he is doing nobody a favor.

Natural Shoe Polish.
Baltimore American: Orange juice is one of the best dressings for black shoes or boots. Take a slice or quarter of an orange and rub it on the shoe or boot. Then, when dry, brush with a soft brush until the shoe shines like a looking glass. This is an English recipe. Another fruit dressing is for tan shoes, the inside of a banana skin. Rub the skin over the shoe thoroughly, wipe off carefully with a soft cloth briskly. Patent leather shoes should not be polished with blacking. These are the hardest kind of shoes to keep looking well, and require constant care. They may be cleaned with a damp sponge, and immediately dried with a soft cloth, with occasionally a little vaseline or sweet oil. They must never be done in cold weather without heating, as they will crack as soon as exposed to the cold air.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. Washington, Aug. 20.—It has been decided by the navy department to place the dynamite cruiser Vesuvius out of commission, and it is doubtful if this vessel will again form a part of the navy. Experts do not regard the Vesuvius as being a success. Upon investigation it appears the work done by the dynamite cruiser at Santiago was not near so effective as was at first reported. An officer in the navy department said in speaking of the Vesuvius: "It was never known to hit but one thing, and that was the island of Cuba."

WAITING WITH CONFIDENCE.

Mercantile Community Has No Doubt of a Big Fall Trade.

New York, Aug. 20.—Bradstreet's says: Perhaps the most interesting feature of the general business situation at present is the air of confidence with which the mercantile community awaits the approach of the fall trade period. While based in some degree upon favorable results already achieved in many lines, it is unquestionably true that the flattering crop outlook at home and the return of peace, with the expectation of benefits to our export trade naturally to accrue therefrom, make for much of the feeling thus expressed.

Reflection of the growth of fall trade is found in the steady expansion now going on in bank clearings, the improving demand at higher prices for most makes of iron and steel, the generally favorable railway earnings which point to a large return trade in manufactured goods to the agricultural sections, and the reports of the continued activity in distributive trade west and south, with signs of moderate increase in interest at leading eastern markets. The situation in cereals shows but little change. The balance established between the phenomenally reduced visible supplies, active milling demand at home, and fair export inquiry on the one hand, and the very promising crop outlook on the other hand, tends to steadiness in prices, and other cereals sympathize with wheat.

Reports as to collections the country over are very encouraging. Business failures are larger in number than last week, aggregating 185, against 157 last week, but compare with 221 in this week a year ago, 264 in 1896, 192 in 1895 and 251 in 1894.

Help is at Hand.

JOHN MORROW'S DISCOVERY GIVES HEALTH TO DIABETES PATIENTS.

One of the Worst Diseases Known to Man is Overcome by Modern Science.

When the common symptoms of kidney troubles are neglected the careless sufferer is in great danger of contracting diabetes or Bright's disease, two of the most terrible afflictions that have been imposed on mankind. The remedy for the earliest stages, as well as the worst cases, one that will restore the kidneys to sound health, is Morrow's Kidneoids. These yellow tablets should be taken when the back aches, or when headaches, chilliness, loss of energy or pain in urinating show that the kidneys are out of order.

Diabetes, that disease which is almost as deadly as Bright's disease, is indicated by failure of strength and emaciation. The mouth is pasty, skin dry and hard, the bowels are constipated, vomiting is frequent, the vision becomes dim, memory and intellect fail, and the temper becomes irritable.

A recent case of the cure of this awful disease by Morrow's Kidneoids is that of Mr. C. E. Clippinger, a well-known confectioner of 53 South Limestone street, Springfield, Ohio. He writes:

"I have been a constant sufferer from kidney disease for the past year. Very often upon arising in the morning the pain was so severe I could scarcely get about at all. I consulted with different physicians and they all told me that I was troubled with diabetes, and treated me for same, but I failed to derive any benefit from their medicine. I was finally persuaded to give Morrow's Kidneoids a trial, and to my great surprise, after I had taken but one box, the pain left me and I have experienced no trouble since then. I feel entirely well, and am enjoying better health in every way than for several years."

The fame of Morrow's Kidneoids has created a demand for them everywhere and they are now sold by all dealers at 50 cents a box, six boxes for $2.50. If for any reason the dealer cannot supply you, they will be sent postpaid on receipt of the price by John Morrow & Co., Chemists, Springfield, Ohio.

COLLEEN DHAS.

As I stamed out one morning
The stars were in the sky.
But chattering his warbling
Head flung it low and high.
The little birds were talking.
The mountains yet were gray.
When Colleen Dhas came walking
At dawning of the day.

Her feet outvied the daisies,
Her hair outshone the sun.
Her beauty, like the Graces,
Did join all sweets in one;
Her eyes like twin stars married,
Her breath of newmown hay;
A milking pail she carried
At dawning of the day.

"Now, are you tender Hebe,
Or maybe Juno bright?
Your name it might be Phoebe,
That robs the sun of light,
Or are you lovely Venus,
That close beside me stray,
With the milking pail between us
At dawning of the day?"

"Young man," she said, "don't flatter.
Your glance is bold and free.
No stranger's praise will matter
To virtuous maids like me.
Pray go where you were going;
I take the other way.
And I hear my crummy lowing
At dawning of the day."

Upon a bench of rushes
Alone I sat and heard
Her voice outsing the thrushes
And every warbling bird;
I heard the sweet milk spouting,
The hedge between us lay,
And I longed that we were courting
At dawning of the day.

—Pall Mall Gazette.

A LEADING PART.

The following was narrated to me by an old friend of mine, who upon leaving college had adopted the stage as his profession. His name is—well, we will know him by a fictitious one—Harry Thomas, for he is at present in the zenith of the theatrical world, and thousands would recognize him if his name was given in these columns.

His story ran thus:
"As you are aware, Jack, I left college when I was within a little of 18. Well, I had always a great desire to emulate those sterling heroes of old, whose prowess I had studied so much about.

"And there being no other opening in which to test my abilities I determined at once to adopt the stage and make it the field of my mimic conquests, little dreaming of the difficult task which I had voluntarily imposed upon myself.

"How few of the outside world know of the incessant toil of an actor's life!
"He is nothing but a schoolboy. For as soon as one piece is committed to memory another is placed in his hands, and so on—a life of perpetual study and labor.

"After some trouble I obtained the unenviable position of 'sup' in one of our principal theaters. And after spending two years in this branch was promoted to play 'utility business.'
"And here I remained three years more, listening to the plots and schemes of the villains and heroes in different dramas.

"I assure you that by this time my ardor had cooled considerably, and many a time while poring over my part in some new piece I have sincerely wished that I had chosen some other means of earning a living.

"The manager saw that I possessed more than ordinary talent, so he entrusted me with a part in which I played second to the hero of the piece.

"I carried myself through very creditably, and the journals the next morning in their criticisms said:

"Mr. Thomas is a young and very promising actor; good in gesture and correct in delivery."

"Well, at this time a young lady—a star in her line—we will know her as Louisa Dietz—was engaged to play the principal role in a drama which the manager intended to open with and play during the Christmas holidays.

"It inclined rather to the Thespian style in the opening, but ended up as usual, with virtue triumphant, and all the villains either shot or sent to state prison for life.

"The piece required a great deal of study. In short, we had rehearsal every day for nearly a month, and during that time I fell desperately in love with Louisa Dietz, the heroine of the play.

"It was love at first sight, but whether my passion found an answering thrill in her bosom I could not tell.

"Sometimes, when alone, I would call myself a fool, a madman; for how could I for a moment expect an alliance between myself—a newly pledged knight of the dramatic art, and Louisa Dietz, whose name was sufficient to cram any theater with the wealth and beauty of the land.

"The actor who was to play the hero of the drama was a tall, fine, dark looking man, and it nearly set me crazy to see him (when the business of the piece required it) clasp her to his breast.

In my fevered imagination, I thought that he used more earnestness than the nature of the occasion required.

Well, at last the final rehearsal but one was over, and the following Monday night (which was Christmas) the drama was to be presented to the public.

Monday dawned fair and bright, the air was cool and crisp.

The last rehearsal had been called for this morning at 11 o'clock.

Upon reaching the theater what was my surprise to find every one, from the manager down to the callboy, running about the stage and talking in the most excited manner.

"Upon inquiry I found that the person who was going to play the leading character in the piece had the night before fallen upon the icy pavement and so injured his ankle that it rendered it impossible for him to appear.

"The manager upon hearing it had dispatched his messengers to all the theatrical agencies in the city to, if possible, obtain a person to play the part.
"But without success, for those who were competent would not risk their reputation in performing a piece upon willing were not fit to successfully render the lowest part in the whole drama.

"This was the state of affairs when I came upon the stage.

"The manager was in a perfect frenzy, and Louisa Dietz sat near one of the flats, silent and pale as marble.

"This was her first appearance at this theater, and to have an accident occur like this was enough to stupefy any one under similar circumstances.
"I pitied her from the bottom of my heart.

"I was standing at the prompter's stand, when suddenly a wild thought shot through my brain.

"Why couldn't I play the part? For, having such a number of rehearsals, I was as perfect in his part as I was in my own.

"No sooner had the idea entered my mind than I acted upon it, and going up to the manager I said:

"I know this part, and I have no doubt if you will intrust it to my care I can go through with it satisfactorily."

"He grasped me warmly by the hand and said:

"Thanks, thanks, Mr. Thomas. I have every faith in your ability."

"But I cared more for the grateful look in Louisa's eyes as she walked by my side and said:

"I, too, will ever owe you a service, which will be impossible to repay."

"So it was decided that I should assume the principal role, while a person, after some trouble, was obtained who could, no doubt, by gagging and being followed closely, put through my part.
Well, at last the evening arrived and with immense crowds that flocked from all quarters.

"At a quarter before 8 the manager stepped before the curtain and narrated the accident to the audience, and then begged their kind indulgence in my behalf, who at the last moment, rather than have them disappointed, had volunteered to play the part.

"I, all this time, had been looking through a small hole bored in the proscenium.

"The house was packed from parquet to dome with as refined an audience as ever I have had the pleasure to play to.

"At 8 o'clock precisely the curtain was rung up and the play commenced.

"Neither Louisa nor I appeared until the second scene.

"I was standing in breathless anxiety, leaning against one of the flats, upon the prompt side, while she stood slightly flushed, but perfectly collected, upon the 'O. P.' side.

"I had perfect confidence in myself, but every actor, no matter how perfect he may be, will feel an indescribable sensation of—you hardly say what—when he is about to stake his reputation in a new role before the public.

"Well, at last the first scene was called in.

"And amid a deathlike silence the star of the evening walked on.

"Instantly a storm of applause greeted her, and echoed and re-echoed around and among the scenery like the rumbling of distant thunder.

"The scene represented a garden in which she was soliloquizing as to whether her lover (me) was true to her, or whether he was playing her false.

"At last I received my cue, and went on.

"My entrance was again the signal for deafening applause, which was continued for nearly five minutes, and it gave me time to fully think over what I was about to say.

"Finally all was once more quiet, and I commenced my delivery.

"It abounded in protestations of my undying fidelity and love for her.

"As I continued I warmed up with the subject. I was almost carried away by the intensity of my feelings.

"I forgot that hundreds of eyes were critically watching every gesture and that attentive ears were devouring the words as they fell from my lips.

"I saw only before me the woman I loved. And the passion which I was outpouring to her ears was not the love of the hero of the play, but simply the love of Harry Thomas for Louisa Dietz.

"When I had finished, the curtain descended amid showers of bouquets and deafening applause.

"The latter was continued until we both appeared before the curtain.

"I need not dwell upon the remainder of the performance. Let it suffice to say that we both received a perfect ovation.

"And that night, when the curtain had descended for the last time, the manager came hurrying in to where I was in the greenroom, and seizing me by the hand he said, his voice trembling with emotion:
"You have saved the reputation of my house."

"And thereupon he drew up papers of agreement trebling my salary and engaging me to play leading business.

"I need hardly add that my fame was at once established, and a short time afterward Louisa and I were married."

And now the names of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas displayed upon the bill-boards of any theater are sufficient to cause the manager (long before the hour of commencing) to put out the sign of "Standing room only."—Minneapolis Tribune.

Got It Overboard.

Once while in a foreign port Admiral Dewey ordered the heaviest hoisting tackle in the ship to be got out of the hold without delay. Nobody knew what it was for, as there was nothing just at that time, either heavy or light, to be taken on board or sent ashore. After two hours' hard work the tackle was in place, and Dewey then ordered that a large chew of tobacco which had been thrown under one of the guns be hoisted overboard and dumped into the sea.

A Painter's Conscience.

In the course of some reminiscences of Sir Edward Burne-Jones a correspondent of The Westminster Gazette remarks: Those who are not "offended" by the paradoxes of Charles Lamb would have delighted in Burne-Jones' play of humor and imagination. Let me justify my reference to Charles Lamb.

I once returned to Burne-Jones some books which he had lent me 30 years before, writing to him to the effect that if it was base to keep borrowed books so long it was heroic to return them after such long possession as might well breed the sense of ownership. In reply
he said:

"The return of those books has simply staggered me. It has also pained me, for it seems to raise the standard of morality in these matters and perhaps to string the susceptible consciences of book borrowers. I have many borrowed books on my shelves. I would rather the owners should die than that I should have to think about these things and return them. I have two costly volumes that were lent to me before that little incident of ours, which, you may remember, was in Red Lion square. I hope the owner is no more,
for I simply will not give them up.
And you have made me uneasy and have helped to turn an amiable rascal into a confirmed villain. Your affectionate
NED."

Slung Puzzled Him.

Edouard Remenyi, the great violinist, used to say that some of the hardest studying he ever did in his life began after an experience he had in Detroit.

"On my first tour of this country,"
he delighted in telling, "I worked unceasingly to acquire a knowledge of the language and got on fairly well. But the slang that I found so prevalent baffled me more than anything else. I gave a performance in Detroit one night and met with a reception that warmed my heart toward her people. Among other things, this appeared in one of the papers next morning: 'Here an ugly, little, bowlegged chap, whose clothes hung loosely about his ungainly person, waddled to the footlights. But, sakes alive, how he did play the fiddle!'
Now, I couldn't make out what that 'sakes alive' meant, so I timidly approached a gentlemanly citizen, told him of my inability to grasp the meaning of the slang, and asked him if the expression was intended to be complimentary.

"He kindly read it and replied,
'Well, I should snicker.'
'I was more bewildered than ever,
and from that time on made the study of slang one of my chief occupations.'"

A Forgetful Bishop.

An English bishop, noted for the shortness of his memory, was one day waiting at a station for a train. Being in good time, his lordship was indulging in a solitary trot up and down the platform. While thus engaged, he came in contact with a young officer whose face seemed familiar to him. Meeting him again, he said "Good morning."

At the next encounter the bishop stopped, saying, "How is your father?"
The gallant soldier replied, "He has been dead for many years." The bishop tried again with the query, "How is your mother?" "Well," said the officer, smiling, "I think she must be all right, or you would have heard had she been indisposed."

The bishop walked away, but his curiosity was greatly aroused. Seeing the station master, he at once asked him if he could enlighten him as to who the young officer was with whom he had been conversing. "Oh," replied the station master, "why, your lordship, that's the Duke of Connaught."—

A Brave Briton.

When the attack was made on Sidon, during the war with Syria, it became necessary for the British troops to advance across a long, unprotected bridge, in the face of a battery of six guns, which completely commanded the approach. The men were unwilling to expose themselves to certain death, when Arthur Cumming, carefully dressed in full uniform, stepped forward to the middle of the bridge. It was immediately swept by the fire of the battery.
When the smoke had rolled away, there stood Cumming intact, carefully brush-ing the dust from his boots, after which he stood erect, fixed a single glass in his eye and looked back at the men.
This was too much, and they captured that bridge and battery with a whoop.

His Compliment.

A few weeks back a wedding breakfast was given by a substantial farmer blessed with five daughters, the eldest of whom was the bride. A neighbor, a young farmer, who was honored with an invitation, thinking no doubt that he ought to say something complimentary upon the event, addressed the bridegroom thus:

"Well, you have got the pick of the batch."

The faces of the four unmarried ones were a study.—London Fun.

The Sapper and the Sentry.

While stationed at Gibraltar I overheard, says a "regiment" story teller, the following colloquy between an infantryman doing sentry go and a sapper out with his sweetheart:

Sentry (who sees sapper coming)— Halt! Who goes there?

Sapper (trying to look big)—Engineer and his lady.

Sentry—Advance, sapper and servant girl. All's well.—London Globe.

Drenching Her Conceit.

Helen—He thinks the world of me.
And such nice things he says of me! He said last evening that I was a dream.

Harriet—A dream may be beautiful when one is under its influence, but one forgets a dream so quickly when one wakes up, you know.—Boston Transcript.

ONE FOR JARVIS.

HE CAPTURES CASS COUNTY DELEGATES.

Van Buren County Delegates Were Uninstructed But Will Be For Jarvis.

The democrats of Cass county held a large convention at Cassopolis yesterday and elected delegates to the congressional convention and instructed them to vote for Hon. R. I. Jarvis.

The Van Buren county fusionists elected delegates to the congressional convention this week but they were not instructed. The friends of Mr. Jarvis have assured him that he is their choice.

There is now no chance to defeat Jarvis for the democratic nomination for congress.

LATER—The above information in regard to Cass county came by telephone from Dowagiac this morning and was misunderstood. What the sender said was that the caucus where the resolutions were passed were held at Dowagiac. The county convention will be held Tuesday.

WILL ENTER.

Capt. Stevens of St. Joseph Will Try for Capt. Robbins' Place.

Capt. Stevens, the faithful captain of the life saving station at St. Joseph, will be one of the many contestants for the place made vacant by the death of Capt. N. Robbins.

At the time of Capt. Robbins' death he was superintendent of the life saving service in this district, a position which paid a good salary and required a man of brains. Capt. Stevens was informed that the keepers of stations along the lake would take an examination and the one having the best standing would be given the place. As a result the captain is putting in his spare time in preparing for the examination and his many friends hope he may win.

SAD DROWNING.

CASE AT NAPIER BRIDGE USUALLY SO.

James E. Rowins of Chicago Was Helpless, Being Suddenly Taken With Cramps.

The particulars of the drowning of James E. Rowins of Chicago in the St. Joseph river, mentioned in THE NEWS yesterday, are especially sad.

Rowins came to St. Joseph to spend his vacation. He was the son of a Chicago book publisher. He was in company with William A. Laurie, another Chicago boy.

The boys went into the river near Napier bridge to swim. After being in a short time Rowins called to Laurie that he was cramping. Laurie would have succeeded in saving his companion but the young man grabbed him and both were helpless. After nearly drowning Laurie broke from the grasp of his friend and reached shore to alert away. He soon recovered but by that time Rowins was dead. The family of the dead boy are heart broken.

The two boys spent much time in planning their vacation trip. They went to St. Joseph on the Fourth of July and decided that it would be a good place to be. They also selected the boarding house of Mrs. Ann. 43 Prospect street, as their headquarters. Both love their bicycles and they took with them a tandem and two single wheels. The last letter James Rowins wrote to his brother was dated Thursday afternoon and was full of the stories of enjoyable times. Only that afternoon they had been swimming in the river. For yesterday a trip to Paw Paw lake was planned on their wheels. The fatal swim was to be only an incident in the day.

RELIABILITY

is a quality some newspapers have lost sight of in these days of "yellow" journalism. They care little for truth and a great deal for temporary sensation.

It is not so with THE CHICAGO RECORD.

The success of THE RECORD rests upon its reliability.

It prints the news—all the news—and tells the truth about it.

It is the only American newspaper outside New York city that has its own exclusive dispatch boat service and its own staff correspondents and artists at the front in both hemispheres.

It is the best illustrated daily newspaper in the world.

Its war news service is unapproachably the best.

Says the Urbana (Ill.) Daily Courier:

"We read the war news in the other papers, then we turn to THE CHICAGO RECORD to see how much of it is true."

Sold by newsdealers everywhere and subscriptions received by all postmasters. Address THE CHICAGO RECORD, 181 Madison street, Chicago.
